Preschool receives educational grant for second consecutive year

PRE-SCHOOL

A grant has been secured again for the 2nd year in a row for Preschool to participate in "Lego League" robotics. This year the unit will be "Super Powered," meaning the students will learn about electricity. "We are looking forward to see what creations the children will come up with while building in their groups," said preschool teacher Mrs. Karen Shafer.

S.T.E.M. Class works on Tiny Dream Rooms project

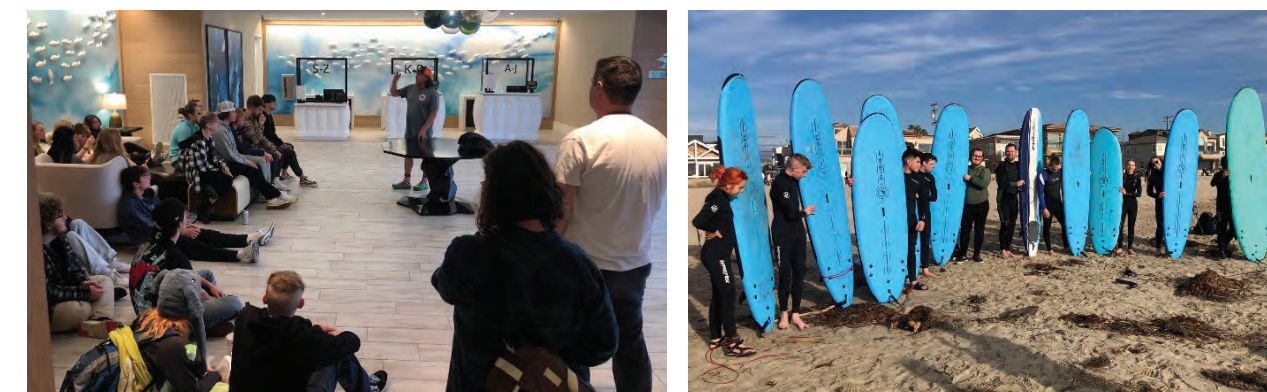

Mrs. Derry's STEM classes built miniature bedrooms as a project last month. The students added intricate details from furniture, to carpet/flooring, and even lighting to their tiny bedrooms. Following the project completion, students and teachers voted on the best projects. Six winners were chosen including Rachel Loomis, Isabel Marin-Hernandez, Cielo Maldonado, Sam Ogrodny, Maria Marin-Hernandez, and Danae Tuinstra (pictured above from left to right with Mrs. Leticia Derry).

Bangor Gone Boarding makes waves in California

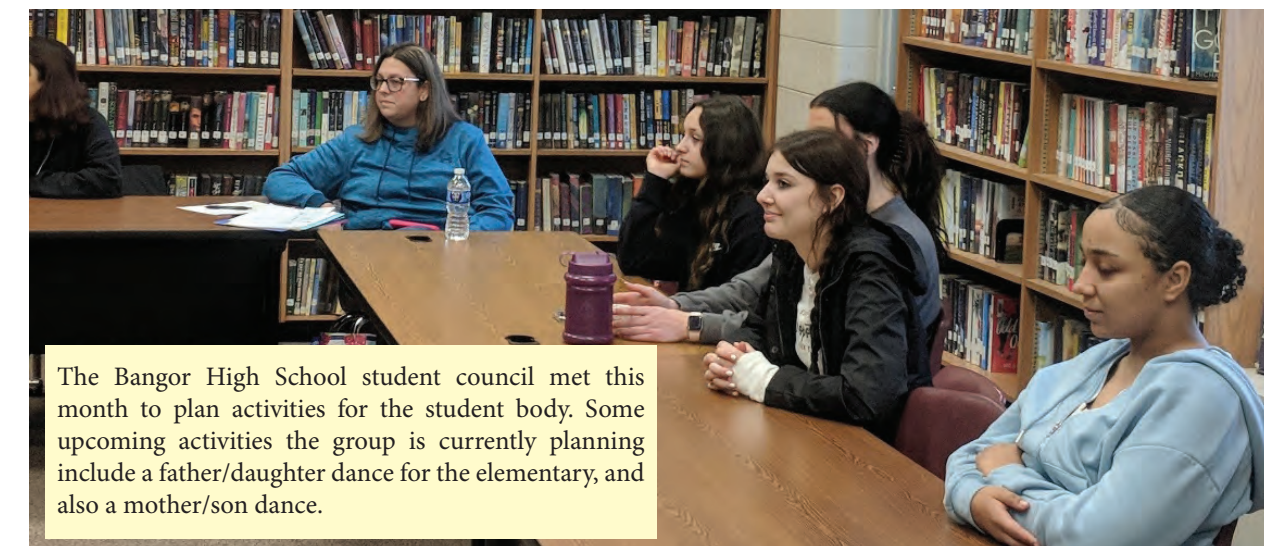

Several Gone Boarding High School students accompanied Mr. Meyers on an exciting trip to California. The students surfed on the famous Newport Beach, and stayed at a Hotel in Huntington Beach.

Some of the places they frequented included Wahoo's restaurant, GoPro Marketing Headquarters, Alva Skates Warehouse, Huntington Surf & Sports, Florence Marine X, toured Marko Foam Blanks, Vans Headquarters, took the Loaded Boards Tour, Red Bull Headquarters and tour, Channel Islands, and more.

Bangor High School students who attended the trip included Austin Conklin, Nolan Crandall, Abelardo Muñoz, Cloe Hull, Adam Vorva, and Summer Zink. Students from Henry Ford High School, Warsaw High School, Grand Rapids Christian High School, and Kent Innovation High School were also in attendance. The trip was coordinated by Gone Boarding Founder, Bill Curtis.

Student Council plans fun activities

The Bangor High School student council met this month to plan activities for the student body. Some upcoming activities the group is currently planning include a father/daughter dance for the elementary, and also a mother/son dance.
