South Walnut Elementary

Breakfast with the Teacher - Featuring Ms. Wade & Mrs. Fritz's Classes

"Mayor" Fun With Mayor Farmer

To wrap up second grade's geography unit last month, Mayor Farmer came to the school and shared about her job of being Bangor's Mayor. South Walnut students sure appreciated hearing all about being a mayor!

Students Lead Pledge of Allegiance at City Council Meeting

City of Bangor Mayor Lynn Farmer presents a certificate to South Walnut students Basil D. and Daedric B. for leading the Pledge of Allegiance at Bangor City council meeting. The meeting took place last month.

Second Grade Staycation

The week before winter break, the second graders were supposed to take a field trip, however the weather foiled the plans. After a two-hour delay, it was decided to bring their field trip to the classroom. The day was complete with popcorn, juice boxes, hot chocolate, crafts, and of course watching the Holiday favorite, "The Polar Express."

The Bangor Gone boarding class went on a trip to California this month. The students had the opportunity to surf in the Pacific Ocean and visit various organizations, businesses, and vendors.

Biology Class Receives New Digital Microscopes

The Microscopes were acquired through a grant. Mr. Meyers submitted a request for the grant, which awarded $5,673 towards the purchase of the microscopes. The Reidler Family Charitable Fund submitted the funds for the grant.

Band Program Welcomes Intern from WMU

This semester Mrs. Doe is mentoring an intern from Western Michigan University, Ms. Abby Hahn. She is currently a WMU student, majoring in music education and will graduate this year. "My dream is to become a middle school and high school band director, while also performing in a symphony (if I get lucky) or pit orchestra in my spare time," stated Hahn.
